

FAMILY COUNSELING

In need of confidential counseling?

As life presents its many challenges and stress takes a toll, the decisions we face daily can become overwhelming. We would like to offer some much needed relief. Four Oaks Early Intervention in coordination with a staff licensed counselor, Diana Holderman, is providing comfortable, confidential family counseling.

Diana Holderman, M.Ed., PC.

Over 18 years experience working in early intervention services, Diana is a licensed professional counselor. She has worked with numerous children and families and is aware of the many struggles you may be facing. Talking candidly about these with someone is often very helpful. Diana is also available for behavior consultations for those feisty little ones posing behavior challenges of many kinds.

Services available free of charge to parents of infants and toddlers eligible for Help Me Grow early intervention and currently receiving services from Four Oaks Early Intervention.
